Dear Authorizer,

Verification of Identity

As you may be aware, a number of countries within the Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA) region require the collection of identity documents in order to comply with their local anti-money laundering (AML) regulations. You are an Authoriser of the CitiDirect® Online Banking system, which is a service provided to your organization in various countries by a number of Citi entities, some of which are obliged to conduct identity checks in order to comply with local AML legislation.

To date, our review of the AML requirements across the EMEA region has shown that in order to meet the requirements of various countries, we will need to obtain different combinations of the types of documentation described in the EMEA AML Requirements Schedule. This Schedule is available on the CitiDirect Online (CDOL) banking website and may be updated from time to time. The current version of the Schedule sets out the specific requirements for a number of branches, and to the extent that you are an Authorizer for an account in at least one of these countries, we will need to collect the specified documents from you now.

To minimize the inconvenience to you, we recommend that you send us each of the types of documentation listed in the Schedule, in the event that you have (or may in future be granted) access to accounts held in other EMEA countries with additional requirements. Only approved Citi staff located in the country or countries listed in the Schedule for which you actually have payment authorization rights will be able to access your documents. Unless restricted by applicable law of country listed in the Schedule, documents might be shared internally between Citi staff located in countries provided in the Schedule to process AML validation in all countries. They will only be able to access the documents that they need to see for the purpose of compliance with local AML legislation, and they will not access the documents for any other purpose.

Alternatively, you may choose to send us only the documents that are strictly required at this stage, as listed in the Schedule, on the basis that we may request you to send us further documents in future. The documents you send us will be scanned and uploaded onto a Citi system hosted in Poland by a Polish Citi company (Citibank Europe PLC (Publiczna Spółka Akcyjna) Oddział w Polsce, address: Chałubinskiego 8, 00-613 Warsaw, Poland) (for specific country process please refer to CDOL for full details). Of course, Citi will keep the original and electronic versions of your documents secure and confidential, in accordance with our strict information security standards.

We will hold these documents for the periods set out in the Schedule, after which they will be destroyed. We may disclose them to regulators, if required.

The data controller (that is, the legal entity that is responsible for your personal data) in respect of your personal data is the relevant Citi company or companies identified in the Schedule. However, please contact your normal Citi service representative if you have any queries.

It is the responsibility of the Authorizer to inform Citi immediately in case of any change in terms of information provided in this Verification of Identity letter.

Citibank Europe PLC (Publiczna Spółka Akcyjna) Oddział w Polsce
For and on behalf of all Citibank entities stated in the EMEA AML Requirements Schedule which is available on CDOL.
